ABOUT

Part I : About

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

This distinguished program is designed to develop young dancers (ages 8-18) in the art of performance and equip them with the necessary tools and technique needed for a successful career as a professional dancer. This conservatory-style training is modeled after prominent schools such as Balanchine's School of American Ballet.

Students in the program are required to train a minimum of 9 hours per week for Level 1 and 13 hours per week for Levels 2 and 3. Students attend a schedule of requisite courses specifically tailored to their level, including ballet, jazz, modern, and contemporary dance. Students are also encouraged to join as many elective courses as they can according to their personal schedules.

This program is a launching point for students to experience professional opportunities in the Saint Louis community and beyond. We encourage students to audition and perform with other prestigious organizations and provide them with the resources to be successful.

FACULTY AND STAFF

We believe that a student reflects the knowledge imparted by their teacher. As a result of this philosophy, our instructors are required to have professional experience and training with their course subjects, along with a significant teaching background to ensure the highest level of learning for the students. A complete list of faculty is not yet available for the 24/25 season.

Robyn Hartley (Ballet and Pointe Instructor): Robyn Hartley trained and performed with many prestigious companies such as The School of American Ballet, The Joffrey Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, Boston Ballet, Kansas City Ballet, and Alabama Ballet. Robyn brings with her over 20 years of teaching experience and a passion for equipping the next generation.

Kayla Neeper (Acrobatics Instructor): Kayla Neeper received her Associate's degree in Dance from Florida School of the Arts and also performed professionally in the company Three Hearts. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Anatomy and her Doctorate in Chiropractic. She is Acrobatic Arts certified and has over 10 years of teaching experience.

Elizabeth Bridgeman (Company Director): Elizabeth Bridgeman is the founder and owner of Bridgeman Academy of Performing Arts. Throughout her career, she performed with prestigious companies such as The Muny, Opera Theatre of St. Louis, Broadway Kids, The Canadian Ballet (Les Grands), and Circus Harmony. She also holds certification in Progressing Ballet Technique (PBT). Elizabeth founded and ran a local non-profit theatre organization for young adults prior to starting Bridgeman Academy. She is passionate about equipping students in the arts to serve God and others and has over 15 years of teaching experience.

Will Brighton (Contemporary Instructor, Boys Technique): Will Brighton is a dancer, choreographer, and teacher based in St Louis, MO. Originally from Ann Arbor, Michigan, Will holds a BFA in Dance and BA in English from Western Michigan University. While at WMU, Will performed in concerts alongside Taylor 2 and Peridance Contemporary Dance Co. and had the honor of performing both in historical works by George Balanchine, Paul Taylor, and Antony Tudor, as well as original works by contemporary artists Christian Denice, Yin Yue, BAIRA, and others. Upon graduating, Will joined The Big Muddy Dance Company where he is currently a company dancer. Will also performed as a guest artist with Saint Louis Ballet in their 2021 production of Alice in Wonderland by Brian Enos.

Kendall Heuman (Ballet and Pointe Instructor): Originally from the Springfield Illinois area, Kendall Heuman graduated with a BFA in Dance, emphasis in Ballet, from Webster University in May of 2020. In the summer of 2018, she studied abroad in Geneva, Switzerland to train in Ballet and European Contemporary Dance. In 2020, Kendall was a member of the Convergence Trainee Program with the Big Muddy Dance company. Kendall currently is in her second season with Ballet 314, under the direction of Robert Poe and Rachel Bodi, performing in their main stage productions and community outreach events. In addition to performing, Kendall has a passion for teaching and is currently on faculty at Saint Louis Ballet School and was with Patzius Performing Arts until the school closed in summer of 2023. She teaches Ballet, Jazz, Contemporary and coaches dancers to compete in Youth American Grand Prix and various regional competitions in the St. Louis area.

Angie Thompson (Academic Tutor): Angie Thompson is an educator with 35 years of classroom and administrative experience. She has worked in a myriad of venues with a variety of students from kindergarten through high school. For 20 years she was the Head-of-School for a performing arts school for preschool through high school. Currently, she has started her own micro-school where she personally teaches elementary students.

Dorothy Davis (Lyrical Instructor): Dorothy Davis began teaching at Bridgeman Academy in 2021. She graduated from AMDA (Los Angeles) with her BFA in Dance Theater and has been dancing for 20 years. She currently works with the COCA Hip Hop Company dancers, as well as, other St. Louis dance studios, and also performed in a Prince show directed by Stephanie Landwehr.

Marcus Benson (Hip Hop Instructor): Marcus Benson has been dancing continuously for over 14 years. Marcus began teaching at Bridgeman in 2021 and has six years of prior teaching experience. His strengths are step, hip-hop, and mime. With immense competition experience across the United States, he has performed both as a team member & coach. Along with Bridgeman Academy, he currently teaches at Dance Plus & Pointe of Surrender Dance Studio where he also serves on the coaching staff for their competition team.

POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Part II : Policies and Procedures

ACCEPTANCE AND PLACEMENT

We care deeply about each of our dancers and their development as young artists. Our staff works diligently to select and place each student in the program and level that best suits their individual needs. Student acceptance in the Pre-Professional Dance Program is determined based on a variety of factors, including technique, passion, discipline, strength, flexibility, ability to name syllabus-level vocabulary, punctuality, consistent class attendance, adherence to dress code, observance of classroom etiquette, respectfulness towards instructors and peers, and successful completion of auditions or juries. New students are accepted based on their demonstration of these factors in their audition and application. The determination of level is never based on age or prior dance experience.

PLACEMENT IN THE IGNITE PERFORMANCE COMPANY

- The Ignite Performance Company is composed of select pre-professional students who demonstrate exceptional technique, presence, and work ethic. Students in the Performance Company have the opportunity to perform at various high-profile venues throughout the year. Pre-professional students who are placed as a Member or Apprentice are required to attend all performances. Students placed as an Alternate are still required to attend company class each week, however they are not required to attend performances. All pre-professional students will be assigned one of the following titles:

- Alternate: A pre-professional student who attends company class, but does not actively perform with the company unless a company member is unable to perform.
- Apprentice: A pre-professional student who performs with the company, but either needs more company experience or did not perform at the level required to be accepted as a full member.
- Member: A pre-professional student who actively performs with the company and has both the experience and technique to be accepted as a dedicated member of the company.

ATTENDANCE

Pre-professional students must maintain consistent attendance in all courses associated with the program. Elective courses that are not a part of the program do not affect a student's status as a pre-professional student. If a student misses a significant number of courses or an instructor notices a lack of effort within the program, a meeting will be scheduled to discuss the student's placement. Students may miss up to three company classes per academic year. Exceptions may be made for severe illness, family emergencies, or other necessary circumstances. All absences beyond the three accepted absences will result in removal from the program (unless approved by the director). Students who are enrolled as Members or Apprentices in the Company are required to attend all performances. Students may be dismissed from the program at any time at the discretion of the director. Students may also change between Member, Apprentice, and Alternate at any point that it becomes necessary during the year. Previously paid tuition and fees are non-refundable in any circumstances, including dismissal due to behavior or lack of commitment.

DANCEWEAR & EQUIPMENT

Each year, Bridgeman Academy partners with a local store or website to provide students with their dance essentials. The information for our 2024/2025 dancewear partnership is not yet available.

ESSENTIAL PROGRAM ITEMS

“DRESS DOWN PASS” CARDS

Students will be given three dress code cards to use throughout the year. These cards should be kept in their locker and given to their teacher if they arrive to class out of dress code (ex. wrong tights, no pointe shoes, hair not in a secure bun...etc.). Outside of these three occasions, students will be required to observe class if they are not following the dress code in its entirety.

PURCHASING DANCEWEAR THROUGH THE STUDIO

Select dancewear items are available for purchase through the studio app/website (bridgemanarts.com/shop). If dancewear is purchased outside of the studio it must be purchased through our dancewear partner or approved by a teacher. Dancewear styles and colors must match EXACTLY.

DANCE JOURNALS

Pre-professional students will be provided with a dance journal to use throughout the dance season. This is a great tool to track health aspects (such as hydration) and also identify key corrections to help improve technique. Dance journals must be filled out on studio days and are optional to fill out during at-home days. Journals will never be turned in to an instructor, but Ms. Elizabeth will check to ensure students are utilizing them effectively.

→ Dinner & Study is a great time to make sure your journal is completed.

HOW TO FILL OUT YOUR JOURNAL

Record the following information:

- Your current high-level focus area for your dancing
 - Ex: Turns, Flexibility... (pick one and keep it for at least 1 month)
- Important corrections given during class that day
 - Try to only focus on major corrections - not the little things
- Compliments given during class that day
 - List your current strengths - build on the best!
- Exercises/stretches given by your teacher to do outside of class
- Your water intake and notes on your sleep schedule

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Students may not wear fitness watches or bands during any courses. They may only bring electronic devices such as phones and laptops into the studio during Dinner and Study time if given permission by their instructor.

DINNER & STUDY HALL (not optional)

Dinner and Study Hall takes place from 5:30 pm - 6:00 pm each day (Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday) directly following the elective course of the day. All students are encouraged to bring a protein-rich snack or meal to eat during this class period. They may also bring homework to complete or use this time to practice choreography, or fill out their dance journal. This class period will be supervised by an academic tutor. Electronic devices may be used by special permission when needed for homework or practice.

A stretching and conditioning class will be offered during the 30 minute dinner & study period. Students may elect to attend conditioning & stretching class in place of Dinner & Study Hall.

CODE OF CONDUCT

- Students: Pre-Professional students at Bridgeman Academy are expected to exemplify exceptional behavior, attitude, and work ethic at all times. Students must follow all studio policies and rules, maintain a positive attitude, encourage and value all other students at the studio, refrain from derogatory conversation or gossip, and demonstrate respect for all instructors, staff members, as well as, their parents and guardians. Students must respect others belongings (including lockers).
- Parents: Pre-professional parents play a significant role in the atmosphere and environment at Bridgeman Academy. As such, all parents are expected to avoid gossip and negative or unsavory conversation relating to their student, other students/parents, Bridgeman Academy staff, studio evaluations and casting results, studio events...etc. Personal issues should be addressed outside of the studio and any issues directly relating to Bridgeman Academy should immediately be brought to the attention of the staff or director.

As examples of Christ, we take the above code of conduct very seriously in regard to both students and parents. Unacceptable or malign behavior (inclusive of bullying) will not be tolerated and will result in a student's dismissal from the pre-professional program and potentially the studio. Previously paid tuition is non-refundable in these circumstances.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

TUITION

Tuition for the pre-professional program is $2499 per year with the option to split into 11 equal monthly payments of $249. There are also pay-in-full and family discounts that apply toward tuition.

PRIVATE LESSONS

Students enrolled in the pre-professional program receive a discounted rate for private lessons. The discounted rate is $25 per 30-minute lesson.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Limited scholarships are available and students wishing to apply should submit their application as soon as possible at the start of enrollment each season.

OTHER FEES

Outside of tuition, students are responsible to pay for the Pre-Professional Summer Intensive ($200) and purchase all dancewear needed for their classes, inclusive of a custom company jacket ($60). Students are also responsible for paying all audition fees, production fees, costume fees, and fees related to company performances (such as tickets to Busch Stadium for the St. Louis Cardinals performance).

TERMINATION OF CONTRACT

CONTRACTUAL COMMITMENT

It's imperative that all students carefully deliberate before signing their pre-professional program contracts. These contracts symbolize a year-long commitment, meaning students cannot simply choose to discontinue attendance at any juncture within the year.

TERMINATION - NON EMERGENCY

If a student expresses intent to drop out of the program after signing their contract prior to the end of the season, they will still be responsible for all fees required for the program. Tuition, Costume fees, Performance fees, Audition fees, and all other expenses will not be refunded should a student choose to break their contract and drop out of the program.

Additionally, students may be responsible to pay for items acquired as a result of their year-long commitment (including but not limited to company leotards, tights, merchandise, headshots...etc.) and may also be asked to pay fees that occur during the remainder of the year that the studio has already committed on the student's behalf.

- ❖ Unless approved by the director, students who break their contract mid-year are ineligible to reapply for the Program in future years.

TERMINATION - EMERGENCY

Should an emergency situation arise in which a student is no longer able to participate in the program and needs to break their contract, a request should be made in writing to the director of the program. Once reviewed, the director will either void the student's contract or follow up with the student regarding their dismissal. Once a student's dismissal has been approved and their contract is void, students will not be responsible for paying any fees dated after the nullification of the contract.

- ❖ If a student's emergency and consequent dismissal is approved by the director, their dismissal will not prevent them from applying for the program again in the future.

PRE-PRO SUMMER INTENSIVE New to the program

Each year, pre-professional students will attend an exclusive dance intensive with guest teaching artists and choreographers. During the intensive students will attend classes and rehearse for the fall ballet production. This week will also include a student teaching certification course and mandatory program meeting to review expectations and discuss events taking place during the 2024-2025 season. This intensive is $200 for the full week and is required for all students enrolled in the pre-professional program.

NEW WORKS SHOWCASE New to the program

Bridgeman Academy is thrilled to introduce a dynamic addition to its pre-professional program in 2024. Students in the program will have the opportunity to create and perform in original student-choreographed works, fostering a collaborative and expressive learning environment. These student-created pieces will be showcased in a theater performance which friends and family are invited to attend. Bridgeman Academy remains dedicated to cultivating versatile performers, and this new initiative adds an exciting new dimension to enhance students' training.

Student Teaching New to the program

Pre-Professional Students who have been certified through the Bridgeman Academy Student Teacher Training course are eligible to assistant teach classes outside of their requisite course schedule. If selected, students spend the year teaching alongside a Bridgeman Academy faculty member who will continue to train them with hands-on learning and offer opportunities to lead the class throughout the year. Students have the opportunity to assistant teach in place of any elective class taking place from 4:30 pm - 5:30 pm. Students may also teach on Wednesdays and Fridays when no requisite courses are offered. All students will be given an opportunity to express their interest and availability for assistant teaching once they have been accepted into the Pre-Professional Program. Only one student will be selected to assistant teach each class and the students selected will be notified in June. Assistant teaching is considered a learning experience and is not a paid position.
